Location:

Class meets each week at the UCSB Sailing Center at the Santa Barbara Harbor adjacent to the 'Santa Barbara Sea Landing'. Directions are available at <http://ucsbsailing.com/facility> or <http://www.sealanding.net/Pages/Directions.asp>.

Important Dates:

Classes run weekly from January 10 to March 17, 2017.

Attendance:

All students must attend the first class or may be dropped. No more than two classes may be missed during the semester to receive a 'Pass'. If you miss a class and would like to make it up, you can come to any of the other sections.

Weather Policy:

In the case of adverse weather, the instructor may cancel class or move to a classroom on campus for a sailing 'chalk talk'. Notice will be given by email. If no notice is given at least one hour beforehand, students should assume that regular class will be held at the UCSB Sailing Center. Below are the classrooms to go to in case of adverse weather:

Recreation Center Room 2103 (2nd floor of recreation center)

Grading:

This class is taken on a Pass/Fail basis. Students must earn a 70% or higher to receive a 'Pass'. Grading will be based on:

Attendance: 50%

Skill checks: 10%

Two quizzes: 10% each (week 3 and week 7)

Final: 20% (week 10)

Book:

"Sailing for Dummies" by Peter and J.J. Isler (not required).
